Good Food Story – About Us

Food

Our pristine catering prep kitchen in Addingham, on the edge of the Yorkshire Dales, is 5* rated and all our food is freshly prepared and beautifully presented. We source the most wonderfully fresh local ingredients and use some of Yorkshire and Lancashire's finest farms and producers. Hundreds of pictures of our food can be seen on our Instagram.

Staff

We train our staff to go above and beyond, always on the lookout for any guest in need, or any situation we can help with. We recruit and train all our own team, ensuring a consistent level of outstanding, friendly service. Our Event Managers and Chefs have been with the team a combined total of over 55 years – with an enormous wealth of experience and knowledge that we love to share.

Awards

In 2022 we again won Wedding Caterer of the Year, for Yorkshire and the Northeast, at the Wedding Industry Awards (the 4th time we have won this). In the national finals that followed in London, we took 2nd place, for the whole of England, placing ahead of all the London Wedding Caterers.

What others say

We have hundreds of wonderful thank you letters, cards, postcards and pictures from party organisers and wedding couples we have catered for. These can be found on our website, on google, on Facebook and on our Thank You Wall in our tasting room.

Notes

Dietary Requirements + Food Allergies

Dietary Requirements

All your guests will be catered for to the highest standards including those with dietary requirements such as vegetarian, vegan or gluten free. We have a full alternative menu covering these requirements or we can in some cases make the same menu in a dietary requirement appropriate version (especially in the case of Gluten Free).

Allergies and Intolerances

Food allergies or intolerances of any kind can usually be catered for. We can provide more information on ingredients, methods, and our due diligence in this area, and are happy to talk to any guests directly if required.

NOTE: Each additional dish we provide will add preparation time both prior to, and on the event day itself, and can add time to service of the menu. Therefore, in the case of multiple dietary requirements, we reserve the right to offer a dish or a variation that caters for more than one dietary requirement. If multiple dishes are still preferred, this may be possible but may involve additional cost.

How soon do we need to know? What do we need to know?

All dietary requirements, allergies and intolerances must be supplied a minimum of 3 weeks prior to the day, but whenever possible by 6 weeks prior. We need to know a full and exact list of all the foods or food groups that a person is allergic or intolerant to as well as the level of intolerance or allergy. For a strong or severe allergy, we may need to consider removing an ingredient or food group from all the menus. If a requirement for a guest is identified at the last minute, we will do our very best to provide for the guest, though never at the detriment to the rest of the menu and service.

The Small Print & Disclaimer (from our contract terms and conditions)

FOOD ALLERGENS / DIETARY REQUIREMENTS: We shall endeavour to provide alternative dishes and menus when guest allergies or specific dietary requirements are identified to us with notice as specified above. If we are notified of guest allergies, we will take all appropriate measures. We follow a strict process control and have detailed due diligence in handling of all foods and ingredients and we adhere strictly to all government guidelines.

HOWEVER, despite this, because we handle numerous allergens in our kitchen and due to the potential for cross contamination, we cannot guarantee that our food is 100% free from any allergen. Venues and 3rd party spaces (such as kitchen tents, venue kitchens, etc) spaces are outside of our control for most of the time, and although we always clean surfaces on arrival, we cannot take responsibility for allergens that may be present prior to our arrival. We cannot take responsibility for any guests who may bring foods and/or allergens into a venue – if any of your guests have a severe allergy, we STRONGLY recommend you advise all your guests to avoid bringing any food containing the relevant allergen(s).

Choice Menu

How about a Choice Menu for guests?

Choice menus are where two or more courses are offered as a choice, to guests, in advance. We have served many choice menus in the past, though we don't always recommend this. Sometimes it can be better to keep to a single choice per course.

Note: Alternative dishes needed for guests with dietary requirements or allergies, are always included anyway.

Things to consider:

- A choice menu can slow down service due to added time taken to plate up different dishes for each table.
- Guests sometimes forget their choice and request a different one on the day - we only carry limited spares and may have to say no to the guest.
- Guests sometimes move places! In this case dishes we send to a table could be the wrong set of choices causing a delay or possible mistakes.
- A choice menu takes some additional planning work from yourselves, sending out the choices, managing and chasing guest's replies, and getting the choices over to us all takes some time.

Costs....

If you feel a choice menu is right for you, we will discuss how we can ensure it is as smooth as possible on the day. To minimise the impact of the things to consider above, for a choice menu we would charge an extra charge per guest to allow us the extra chefs needed for preparation and on the day itself.

Extra to switch to a choice menu (of up to 2 starters, 2 mains, 2 desserts)

£ 6 per guest

Should you offer a choice?

Offering a choice menu is a lovely thing to do for guests and adds to the experience for them. It brings extra requirements to your admin and guest management, as well as to us in extra preparation of extra different dishes and on the day with service, so it is worth talking through the pros and cons before deciding. Let us know if you'd like to discuss in more detail.

Tastings

Menu Tasting

Tastings are optional, and for confirmed bookings (that have date confirmed and deposit paid), a tasting of your menu may be possible subject to calendar constraints and your selected menu. Tastings are charged at the same rate per person as the equivalent menu from the menu pack originally sent to you (or the price quoted to you if tasting a bespoke menu).

Tastings are for a minimum of 2 persons up to a maximum of 4 persons.

- for wedding couples, we recommend it is just the two of you for these taster sessions.

Tastings happen at our tasting room in Addingham (LS29 0PD).

Tasting dates are offered on weekdays, as we are almost always busy with weddings and events at weekends.

We limit timings to 2 hours maximum for tastings, time to discuss your plans further can be arranged as follow ups as needed.

Tasting Food Format

At menu tastings we prepare and present dishes full size, in the same way we would on the day – this is to give an accurate idea of how things will look and taste. Everything is very carefully prepared using the same methods and steps that we would use for the real thing. This takes a lot of time and can take 2 to 3 days of preparation for our chefs; therefore, we do ask you to choose carefully what you would like to taste and give us plenty of notice to allow for planning, orders, and preparation.

PLEASE NOTE: Due to wedding and event commitments during our busiest months of May, June, July, August and September, it can be extremely difficult for us to offer tastings during this time.
